- As defined in Chapter 1956 of the Texas Occupations Code, a crafted precious metal dealer is a person registered to engage in the business of purchasing and selling precious metal items, except for: coins, bars, commemorative medallions, or items that the dealer purchases for 105% or more of scrap value.

The application must include the following information and any other information required by the OCCC. All questions must be answered.

(1) Responsible persons. The application must list the person responsible for the day-to-day operation of the applicant's permanent registered location and a responsible person for each temporary location.

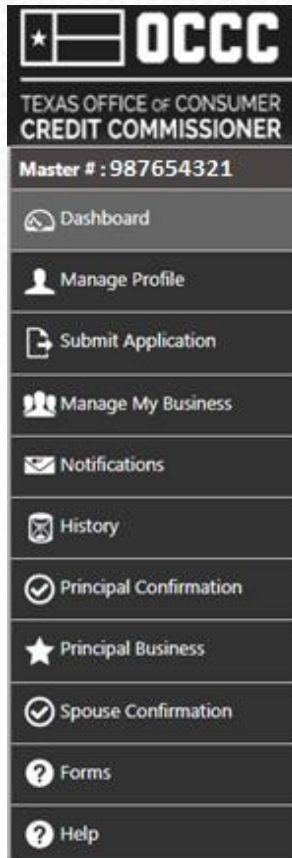

(2) Assumed names. For any applicant that does business under an "assumed name" as that term is defined in Texas Business and Commerce Code, § 71.002, the applicant must provide all assumed names used.

(3) Permanent registered location required. A dealer must have at least one, and may have more than one, permanent registered location. If none of a dealer's locations satisfies the permanent registered location definition contained in § 85.1001 of this title (relating to Definitions), the dealer must designate one location to be the permanent registered location.

(4) Temporary locations. For each temporary location, the dealer must provide the approximate dates of operation at each temporary location.

- Your registration certificate will display as the sample below:

The image shows a sample registration certificate for a Crafted Precious Metals Dealer in the State of Texas. The certificate is enclosed in a rectangular border. In the top left corner, there is the OCCC logo, which consists of a circular seal with a star and the words 'THE STATE OF TEXAS' around it, followed by the text 'OCCC Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner'. In the top right corner, the 'Registration Issue Date: 08/01/2018' is printed. The center of the certificate features the text 'STATE OF TEXAS' in bold, underlined. Below this, it identifies the registrant as a 'Crafted Precious Metals Dealer' with a 'Registration Number: 123456789987654321123'. Further down, it asks for the 'YOUR PERMANENT LOCATION' and specifies 'BUSINESS CITY, TX, BUSINESS ZIP CODE'. At the bottom left, the address '2601 N Lamar Blvd Austin, Tx 78705' is listed. At the bottom center, the website 'www.occc.texas.gov' and phone number '(512)936-7600' are provided. At the bottom right, there is a signature of Leslie J. Pitty and the title 'Consumer Credit Commissioner', with a faint background image of the Texas State Capitol building.
