Section 348.604(f) of the Texas Finance Code provides that:

- (1) approved debt cancellation agreement forms are public information subject to disclosure under Chapter 552 of the Texas Government Code (the Texas Public Information Act); and
- (2) Section 552.110 of the Government Code, which exempts from disclosure trade secrets and certain commercial information, does not apply to approved debt cancellation agreement forms.

I understand that if the OCCC approves the attached debt cancellation agreement form (or any subsequent version of it), then the form will be public information subject to disclosure by the OCCC.

In addition, I grant permission to the OCCC to post the attached debt cancellation agreement (and any subsequent version of it) on the OCCC's website, where it may be viewed by the general public.
