Search

6. Enter your social security number and click search.

If your name shows after search, select it to link to the information OCCC has on file with your new account.

If your name does not show after a search, the OCCC has no information on file for you. Your account is ready to use as needed. The next step does not apply to you.

7. Log out. You will be emailed as soon as your link has been approved. The approval may take three business days. AFTER you get an email saying your link is approved, you can use your account as needed.
