For Frequently Asked Questions visit https://occc.texas.gov/ALECS_FAQ

How long does the process take?

On average and in compliance with statutory requirements, the entire review process takes between 30-60 days. These times may increase during renewal periods and due to high call volume and high volume of new applications being processed.

How can I find out if you (OCCC) received everything?

If we still need items after we review your application, we will send a follow up request through ALECS. You should receive an auto generated email when a pending action is in your dashboard, however, we strongly recommend that you log in at least once a week until your application review is final to verify that you do not miss any pending actions.

What is the status of my application?

The application processing timeline is generally 30-60 days and will be handled in the order received. Should there be any questions or missing information, you will be contacted by a licensing specialist to provide the requested information. You can check the status by logging into ALECS and click on My New Requests and look at the application status. You will see one of the below statuses.

- Initiated – The application has not been submitted and is sitting in your dashboard.
- Received Your application is in the queue waiting to be assigned to a licensing specialist.
- In Review The application is with a licensing specialist pending review of the items you uploaded and will contact you when more information is needed.
- Pending Your licensing specialist has sent you a request. To see this request, click on Dashboard and then click on the My Pending Actions tab, click on the application/reference ID and search the comments/instructions with the most recent date. The date is located to the far right of each comment.
