ORDER OF REVOCATION

The Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner (“OCCC”) issues this Order of Revocation against Vicente Lopez d/b/a BV Auto Sales (“BV Auto Sales”), based on the violations of law described below.¹

Statement of Facts and Law

Under Chapter 348 of the Texas Finance Code, a person must hold a motor vehicle sales finance license in order to act as a holder of motor vehicle retail installment contracts.² A holder includes a dealer that sells motor vehicles and agrees to accept the cash price in one or more deferred installments.³ Under Chapter 348’s implementing rules, a license applicant must provide a list of all motor vehicle retail installment contracts that the applicant previously entered.⁴

BV Auto Sales is a motor vehicle dealer that holds a motor vehicle sales finance license issued by the OCCC under Chapter 348 of the Texas Finance Code. BV Auto Sales operates under master file number 2100070275 at one licensed location, under license number 167153. BV Auto Sales’ compliance officer is Vicente Lopez, and its designated contact address is 602 West Malone, San Antonio, Texas 78225.

² Tex. Fin. Code § 348.501.

³ Tex. Fin. Code § 348.001(3), (7), (8).

⁴ 7 Tex. Admin. Code § 84.602(1)(F)(i).

The OCCC issued BV Auto Sales' motor vehicle sales finance license on January 20, 2022. In its license application, BV Auto Sales answered "No" to questions about whether it had made previous retail installment contracts and whether it had sold vehicles for multiple payments.

The OCCC examined BV Auto Sales in March 2024. During the examination, the OCCC identified records of 27 motor vehicle retail installment transactions that BV Auto Sales entered before the effective date of its license, with the earliest transaction occurring in August 2020. After the examination, OCCC licensing staff instructed BV Auto Sales to complete a statement of its previous financing activity. BV Auto Sales sent a statement to the OCCC identifying only seven transactions. The OCCC sent a follow-up request instructing BV Auto Sales to disclose all financing that occurred without a license. BV Auto Sales did not provide a revised statement of previous financing activity in response to the OCCC's follow-up request.

On April 17, 2025, the OCCC issued an Order to Cease and Desist Unlicensed Activity, to Take Affirmative Action, and to Make Restitution against BV Auto Sales.⁵ The Order required BV Auto Sales to cease collecting payments on retail installment contracts entered before January 20, 2022, to refund finance charges, to release liens filed on motor vehicles, and to send a spreadsheet of affected transactions to the OCCC. BV Auto Sales did not request a hearing, and the Order became final and enforceable. BV Auto Sales did not provide the information required by the Order and did not respond to the OCCC's attempts at follow-up communication.

Authority

Under Chapter 348 of the Texas Finance Code, the Consumer Credit Commissioner ("Commissioner") may revoke a motor vehicle sales finance license if: (1) the license holder, knowingly or without exercise of due care, violates Chapter 348, a rule adopted under Chapter 348, or an order issued under Chapter 348; or (2) a fact or condition exists that, if it had existed or had been known to exist at the time of the original application for the license, clearly would have justified the Commissioner's denial of the application.

⁵ OCCC Case No. L25-044.

If the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that a person is violating Chapter 348 of the Texas Finance Code, the Commissioner may issue an order to cease and desist from the violation, to take affirmative action, or both to ensure compliance.⁶ Additionally, the Commissioner may order a person who violates Chapter 348 or a rule adopted under Chapter 348 to make restitution to an identifiable person injured by the violation.⁷

BV Auto Sales violated the OCCC's April 2025 order by failing to take required actions and failing to provide required information. BV Auto Sales violated Chapter 348 of the Texas Finance Code by acting as a holder in motor vehicle retail installment transactions without a motor vehicle sales finance license. BV Auto Sales violated Chapter 348's implementing rules by failing to identify previous retail installment transactions in its license application. These violations were committed knowingly or without exercise of due care. These violations would have justified denial of BV Auto Sales' original license application, if these violations had existed or been known to exist at the time of the license application.
