Transition to NMLS

Texas Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner (OCCC) Motor Vehicle Sales Financing licensees must transition their license(s) to the Nationwide Multistate Licensing System (NMLS) by September 30, 2026. The transition application opened on June 1, 2026, and is available only to licensees holding an active OCCC Commercial Motor Vehicle Sales Financing license before that date.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS:

- Select the correct license type before submitting your application to avoid having to reapply and pay additional fees. Click here to view a sample screenshot showing the correct application type selection and ALECS license number entry.

- Please verify that the ALECS license number is entered before you submit the filing. A missing license number can result in avoidable fees and may cause your filing to be processed as a new application rather than a transition. You can find the ALECS license number on your physical TX-OCCC license immediately after the dash.
- Licensees are encouraged to review available training resources, webinar recordings, and transition application information here: <https://occc.texas.gov/nmls-transition-training/>

Please note that fees collected through NMLS are non-refundable or transferable**
